

2016 - 2017 Concert Schedule

Oct. 16 at Cony High School, 60 Pierce Drive, Augusta: Fiddle-icious. A multi-generational orchestra from across Maine, preserving the cultural heritage of Maine, French and Canadian fiddle music and step-dancing; directed by legendary Don Roy.

Nov. 6 (no snow date). Don Campbell Honors American Veterans. Don and his band join UMA/UMASC in honoring Veterans of all ages and branches of the military. Vets admitted free. Invite an American hero to join you for this very special concert!

Dec. 18, at So. Parish Congregational Church, 9 Church St., Augusta. A Christmas Concert with Downeast Brass and Jay Zoller, organist. A stellar brass quintet, an outstanding organist, and a restored 1866 E. & G.G. Hook organ. Come enjoy their magic!

Jan. 8 (snow date Jan. 15): Dave Rowe and The Squid Jiggers return to Jewett at our audience's request. Dave presents his reflective originals and, when paired with Troy Bennett, great vocal and instrumental harmonies on robust Maine and Maritime songs.

Feb. 12 (snow date Feb. 19). The Plaid Dragonflies. Enthusiastically recommended by Senior College students, Tess Zardus and Val Bennett will present a medley of popular songs from the 40's through today. Warm up in February by singing along!

March 5 (no snow date), Choro Luoco, a Brazilian Choro band from Portland. Nicole Rabata, flute; Carl Dimow, flute, bass flute, guitar, David Newsam, 7 string guitar, and Eric LaPerna, bandeira, present the unique rhythms and intricate harmonies of Brazil's Choro music.

April 9. Sarah Geller, classical violinist. Farmington native, now NYC. Beloved by listeners from coast to coast, Sarah draws audiences with her rich sound and palette of tone colors.

May 7. Masanobu Ikemiya, pianist. Light-hearted ragtime rhythms, the classics, videos of places and projects that inspire him. Peace activist, environmental steward, and C@J favorite.
