

2017 - 2018 Concert Schedule

Oct 29 Novel Jazz. Led by Barney Balch, this research-based, highly skilled, very popular 7-piece jazz band, with members from all over Maine, will present the personally researched music and history of Duke Ellington and Billy Strayhorn (composer, pianist, arranger).

Nov. 19 (snow date: Dec. 3) Paul Sullivan. A composer/pianist, Paul has performed on three continents, received a Grammy Award, and teamed with the school children of Brooklin, ME to perform with Noel Paul Stookey, Sarah Lee Guthrie, and David Grisman. Quirky commentary.

Dec. 17 (no snow date) Downeast Brass and Jay Zoller, organist. This Christmas concert will feature Maine's very popular Downeast Brass, and Jay Zoller playing the restored 1866 E. & G.G. Hook Pipe Organ. At S. Parish Congregational Church, 9 Church St., Augusta.

Jan. 7 (snow date: Jan 14) The Don Roy Ensemble. Don Roy is a champion fiddler; his wife, Cindy, is well known for her step dancing piano accompaniment. The Roys' musical passion lies with French-Canadian and Celtic music. Their ensemble will keep your toes tapping!

Feb. 11 (snow date: Feb. 25) Augusta Symphony Orchestra Ensembles. In a new venture, two ensembles of ASO instrumentalists will present a series of classical pieces. Concerts at Jewett and ASO are excited to feature this latest ASO innovation on the Jewett Hall stage.

Mar. 11 (snow date: Mar. 18) Maine-ly Harmony and Back Bay Four. These two a cappella groups were a hit in 2015, and are returning with more awards to their credit – a feel-good afternoon of skilled harmony and opportunities to sing along with over thirty talented vocalists!

Apr. 8 State Street Traditional Jazz Band. Led by their founder, John Page, every member of this band has a passion to play and preserve Traditional New Orleans Jazz by capturing the original "Preservation Hall Jazz Band" era of music – a lively afternoon!
